PRODUCTION CONTENT WAIVER

Students who take part in CDD will be given the opportunity to show off their strengths/skills and contribute to the final performance in a very personal way. The students themselves, with guidance and assistance will put together their own final show. We will only include content in the show that they are comfortable with. Some of the content may be autobiographical as we believe storytelling is a vital part of this program. We will not include foul language or any explicit behavior in our show. What is deemed appropriate/inappropriate will be at the sole discretion of Artistic Director Sarah Magni. In signing this waiver you are in agreement that the participant will be allowed to express themselves and talk about their personal experiences in class and possibly in performance (only if they are willing). Parents are welcome to speak to us about anything we have been working on in class at any time and together we can edit anything they feel uncomfortable with.

I hereby adhere to Thatz Showbiz Theatre Project's standards of production censorship.
