

We want to express our gratitude to the original storytellers and creators of this land; whose stories and teachings continue to guide us. This land that continues to hold and support us as we meet both virtually and in our studios is the traditional territory of many Nations including the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishinabeg, the Haudenosaunee and the Wendat peoples and is now home to many diverse first Nations, Inuit and Metis Peoples. We support Land Defenders all over Turtle Island who are protecting the earth and their rights to it. Our knowledge and understanding of storytelling, theatre and performance is rooted in Indigenous knowledge and work first and therefore we recognize our responsibility to learn, unlearn and actively support these communities.
